LENT 2010

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Every Friday in Lent we have the traditional devotion of the Stations of the Cross at 4pm. We as a community gather to reflect on the Lord's journey of His agony and crucifixion to which He submitted Himself for the forgiveness of our sins. When we prayerfully reflect on the "way of the cross" we come to understand the great love the Lord has for us, and hopefully appreciate even more, the gifts of His Resurrection, which we celebrate on Easter Sunday.

HEALING MASS

Sunday, March 7th, 12 Noon

TODAY, the Sacrament of the Sick will be administered to all who request it. You don't have to be in danger of death to receive the sacrament. Any physical, spiritual, mental, emotional, or physiological malaise is sufficient. We invite and urge all who might benefit from the sacrament to come and participate in the Healing Mass.

40 Hour Devotion Continuous Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Sunday, March 14th (after the 12 Noon mass) to Tuesday, March 16th

Jesus the Lord will be present on our altar for the Forty Hour Devotion from after the 12 noon Mass on Sunday, March 14th continuously to its conclusion on Tuesday, March 16th. Daily Mass will be at 6:30am and 12:05pm as usual. At 7:30pm each evening we will have Evening Prayer (from Liturgy of the Hours) and we will close with Evening Prayer and Benediction on Tuesday evening.

In the Atrium - We ask every parishioner to sign their name for one (or more) of the periods of devotions. We ask every teenager and young person who can drive to take a period of devotion during the night hours so that Our Lord will not be left alone. This is a time of great grace and favor from God. For all our sakes please take advantage of it.

Sunday Night Meditations

7:00-8:00pm in the Church

March 21st - Lenten Sketches - Music and Readings based on the Last Supper and Crucifixion.

Confessions/Reconciliation: Every Monday Night 7:00pm - 8:30pm

LENTEN SPEAKER SERIES

7:30pm in our church.

Thursday, March 18th,

LECTIO DIVINA (Divine Reading)

Lectio divina is the most ancient method of the Church for reading the Bible. It is the Church's ancient art of reflectively and prayerfully reading Sacred Scripture. Lectio divina lets us understand that our desire for God is the result of God's initiative, the stirring of God's grace within us, drawing us and inviting us to a deeper intimacy with him. We will look at the necessary dispositions for lectio divina to do its work of conversion within us. We will then look at the step-by-step approach to lectio divina, the individual practice of lectio divina which was the regular practice in the early centuries, and conclude with a communal practice of lectio divina, called collatio, whose aim is to build a spiritual community around the Word of God.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

The specific discipline of the Church of the United States regarding penitential days is as follows:

1. The days of fast and abstinence are ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY.
2. The other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.
3. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance. This may be physical mortification or acts of religion, charity, or Christian witness.

Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obligated to fast, by this obligation the individual is permitted only one full meal in the day. At the age of 14, people are obligated to abstain. The law of abstinence forbids the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products, or condiments of any kind even though made from animal fat. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence (unsubstantially or as a whole) is a serious obligation.

Liturgy Corner

In the following weeks, we will be breaking down the various elements of the liturgy and their purpose.

'Meaning of Lent'

from the writings of

Dr Marcellino D'Ambrosio

Lent is a time of introspections. It is a time for the spiritual equivalent of New Year's resolutions. We do things to burn off the excess fat that's weighing us down, try to improve our spiritual diet, and do some meaningful spiritual exercises to strengthen the muscles we call "virtues". But in the early days of the Church, Lent was not so much a time to focus inward. It was a time for Catholics to focus outward. It is a time not just for personal growth, but for growth of the Church.

In the days of the Church Fathers, did the whole Church fast, pray and give alms for the forty days preceding Easter? Absolutely but Catholics did this primarily for the sake of others rather than themselves. There were two groups of people that were the main beneficiaries of these prayers and penance: new Catholics to be baptized at Easter and lapsed Catholics to be readmitted to communion. These folks were praying and fasting during Lent to break the power of darkness in preparation for their crossing over the Jordan into the Promised Land through baptism and penance.

We ought to recover this ancient tradition and do penance for and with those who will enter or return to the Church at Easter. But there is something else that we should do. There are millions more who should be returning or entering. We need to tell them about Jesus. One of our more meaningful Lenten resolutions this year might be to get over the fear of sharing the good news, to be aware of the spiritual needs of those around us, share his love, and invite them to back to church. More people are searching than we may think. Find them! "The fields are white for harvest" (John:4.35).

Baskets OF HOPE HUGE THANKS!

Thanks for an extraordinary collection for St. Augustine's in Newark! As usual, the Missionaries of Charity (Sisters of Mother Teresa) and the volunteers there were so pleased with St. Therese's generosity. Despite economic times, an entire van full of cleaning products, some large canned food items, and some new and gently used items were delivered on February 22. In addition, $700 was donated -- $500 from the Rosary Society and $200 from the Knights of Columbus!

This year, the items were so neatly sorted, packed, and labeled by Girl Scout Junior Troop #897 and Daisy Troop #224. They had gotten together more than twenty boxes for the delivery. The Sisters have written: "Please accept our deepest thanks for your generous gift which enables us to serve Jesus suffering in the poorest of the poor... in the place where as our dearest Mother taught us Jesus is reliving his Passion."

God bless you and your families always...
